A Time for You Family Caregiver Retreat

Wednesday & Thursday, April 25 & 26, 2012
Quality Inn Hotel & Conference Center
Ogallala, Nebraska

What a fantastic group – never felt more welcome. Thank you all. And for a great line up of presenters.

I felt that I learned a lot of information that I had no knowledge of. All the presenters were knowledgeable.

Humor is needed/necessary during the times of being a caregiver and post caregiver.

This was very good for me – I constantly thought I was not keeping up well, after hearing her today I realize it is all OK.

Really enjoyed the personal stories. Great lessons combined with interesting stories with appropriate humor. Phenomenal.

Useful – helpful information and fun.

Who Should Attend?

Anyone who cares for a person of any age with special needs. As a family or professional caregiver, you are integral to the independence and well-being of a person who depends on you. But, who takes care of you? This two-day retreat will give you emotional, physical, spiritual and mental respite that is so vital. You will have the opportunity to reflect, energize and create.

Topics Covered

- Experiencing the challenges faced by caregivers supporting loved ones of all ages can create a sense of meaning and purpose.
- How to communicate with a person with memory loss.
- Learn the importance of a good sense of humor/positive attitude in relation to health, work, relationships and life challenges.
- How the Power of Humor can help us to heal and learn.
- How to find a “New Normal”.

Enjoy Time for Yourself

Make your time as structured or unstructured as you want. Choose from daytime activities such as card making, scrap booking and possibly Tai Chi. Ogallala is home to Lake McConaughy so feel free to take a drive out to the lake and enjoy the beauty or perhaps fishing. Be sure to stop in at the Visitor Center. You will need to purchase a Nebraska Game and Parks entry permit if you choose to visit Lake Mac.
